

BLACK, Robert Owen, passed away August 13, 2007. Bob Black was born in Bedford, Indiana to John P. and Gladys Black. He went to Purdue University where he met Martha Jane Gettinger. They were married in Orange, Texas just before he shipped out for Navy duty in the Atlantic during World War II. After the war Bob and Martha moved to Tucson, where family friends let them use an address in order to register for classes at the U of A. Bob worked at KCNA radio station and then Sundt Construction where he was in accounting for over 30 years. He was a member at 1st Congregational Church, the Elks and Naval Reserve. Bob is survived by three daughters, Kathleen Hilts, Marguerite (Peter) Sorden and Patricia Stash; by granddaughter, Rhonda (Shelley) Schaubberger and grandson, Andy (Valerie) Stash; by great-grandchildren, Steven and Mark Schaubberger and John and William Stash. Services are Saturday, August 18 at 9:00 a.m. in the West Chapel of SOUTH LAWN MORTUARY, 5401 S. Park, with interment immediately following. Friends are asked to gather at Bob and Martha's for one more memory, starting at 6:00 p.m. on Friday evening, August 17.

Arizona Daily Star
16 Aug 2007 p. B5

BLACK, Robert Owen
d. 13 Aug 2007