

Lenore "Lee" Corral
11/9/1927 - 1/19/2011

Lee showed courage of a spiritual warrior in her battle with cancer and passed quietly away on January 19, 2011. Her Memorial Mass will be held on Wednesday, February 9, 2011 at St. Frances De Sales Church at 1375 S. Camino Seco at 11:00 a.m. with a reception to follow in the O'Leary Room on the Church grounds. She was preceded by Athen Bennet, Charlene Boche, Ed Corral Sr. and Ed Corral Jr. She is survived by Chris Corral-Parsons (Bill); brother, Jim Boche (Ardis) and Cheryl and Vernon, Denise Lee Whitehouse, granddaughter and husband, Charlie and great-grandchildren Alex and Keith. In early life she was a devoted mother that ran the Teen dances at St. Frances Xavier in the early 1960's for all of the teens in San Fernando Valley, along with coaching girls baseball. She was retired from Apollo Motor Home Co as the Business Manger, and then helped develop Pioneer Industries as the Comptroller. Mom will be missed by all of her artists friends in C.A.S.A. and Pima Painters of AZ, who dearly cherished her leadership skills and art work, her U of Azwomens basketball group with Sans Meyers.
