

Arizona Daily Star
July 12, 2007
Pg. B5

Arizona Daily Star
Friday 13 Jul 2007 Pg B5

DEMPSEY, Betty Ann, 62 years old, died July 12, 2007 after a long battle with breast cancer. Preceded in death by her husband of 39 years, Butch Dempsey. Survived by her daughters, Donna (Jim) Wiley of Chandler, AZ and Leslie (Larry) Willingham of Tucson, AZ; her grandchildren, Christopher, Hayden, Cody, Kayley and Caitlynn; her sister-in-law, Madeline Linahan and niece, Megan Linahan of Tucson, AZ and her dear friend, Cheri. Betty was preceded in death by her mother, Mary E. Scott; her father, Jacob Van den Heuvel; her beloved sister, Loretta Pierce; her brother, Jackie Van den Heuvel. She is survived by her sisters, Dottie (Fred) Smith, Pollie (John) Hall, Mea Turner and her brother, Andy Van den Heuvel and many nieces, nephews and friends on the East Coast. During her 33 years in Tucson, Betty worked diligently and with love for three family owned businesses. First with Butch in B&W Grading (as one of only a few female dump truck drivers in Tucson at the time); Later with Leslie in Old Pueblo Masonry and most recently with Donna in Option 1 Nutrition Solutions. Betty was an avid softball player well in to her adult life and active in cowboy action shooting as a scorekeeper. She loved to travel, relax on the beach and play the slots, but mostly, she loved and cherished her family, especially her beautiful grandchildren. The family will greet friends at BRING'S BROADWAY CHAPEL, 6910 E. Broadway at 3:30 p.m. on Monday, July 16, 2007 with a memorial service beginning at 4:00 p.m. The family wishes to personally thank all the caring staff at UMC North-Arizona Cancer Center for the many years of care and support.