Arizona Daily Star, Tucson, Arizona 23 Sep 2007 Page B10 Obituary

FOOTE, Edwin D. Born November 7, 1935, passed on to the next life on July 24, 2007. Known for his kindness to others, Ed was a man of many abilities. During the Vietnam War, he was a Navy photographer, "standing at the bow of river boats shooting with his camera as others were shooting back with guns and bullets." He followed his service in the armed forces with employment as a miner in Idaho, then as co-owner of a photography shop. Ultimately, he came to Tucson where he was employed by the Pima County Sheriff Department as a photographer. He is survived by a cousin, June Foote of Portland, Oregon. Services will be held at 10:00 A.M., Tuesday, Sept. 25, 2007 at the Tucson Stake Center, 105 N. Norton. Interment will follow at the LDS Cemetery.
