

GORDON, Marolyn Jeanne Robertson died 15 Sep 2007
Arizona Daily Star, Tucson, Arizona 24 Sep 2007 Page B 5 Obituary

GORDON, Marolyn Jeanne Robertson, 78, of Tucson, died of a heart ailment Saturday, September 15, 2007 at her home. Services are planned at Resthaven Cemetery in Des Moines, Iowa on Tuesday, September 25. A dear mother and loved grandmother, Marolyn was born in Des Moines, Iowa and moved to Tucson in 1973 after living in Crystal Lake, Illinois for many years. Marolyn was a gifted musician. She graduated from Chicago Musical College with a major in piano. Marolyn was a performer but she chose to share her gift of music with children through teaching them how to play and perform on the piano. During her life she taught hundreds of children the joy of music. Marolyn's favorite time of year was Christmas.

I am the peace
of Christmas time
That makes all hearts seem lighter.

I am the feeling of Christmas time
That makes the whole world brighter.

I am the warmth of Christmas time
That brings such joy to giving.

I am the glow
of Christmas time
That adds so much to living.

I am the light
of Christmas time
That shines
from the Star above.

I am the hope
of Christmas time.

For I am the spirit of Love.

(Katherine Nelson Davis)

Among survivors are her daughter Sheryl, son-in-law Bruce and her two grandchildren, Samantha and James, also her beloved friends, Betty and Margarite. Arrangements are being handled by McLauren's Funeral Chapel in Des Moines. Local arrangements by BRING'S BROADWAY CHAPEL, 6910 E. Broadway.

Arizona Daily Star
24 Sep 2007
p. B5