GRAEFF, Kathryn (Kitty), June 8, 1916 to September 14, 2007. After several years of declining health, Kitty finally went to be with Lord on September 14, 2007. After leaving her home in Reading, Pennsylvania, Kitty lived in San Diego, Phoenix, Anchorage, Albuquerque, Grand Canyon National Park, Jackson Hole, and Tucson. Although never married, she maintained close relationships with her brother, Dan; and her two nephews, Billy and Bobby. Relatives will always remember her for her love for cats, playing games (Scrabble and Yahtzee), and her fondness for martinis and smoking. Her remains will be buried in Charles Evans Cemetery in Reading, PA. Thank you, Aunt Kitty -- for all the good times!
