

HATCH, Arthur Edgecomb Jr. died 16 Sep 2007
Arizona Daily Star, Tucson, Arizona 24 Sep 2007 Page B 5 Obituary

Arthur Edgecomb Hatch Jr.

84, beloved husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather, passed away September 16, 2007. Arthur was born in White Plains, NY, the son of Arthur E. and Edna P. Hatch. He is survived by his loving wife of 60 years, Audrey; children Kenneth (Joyce) Hatch, Christin (John) Zbyszynski, Alexandra (Rob) Murphy (formally Alexandra Hayes), five grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren. A student at Brown University, he left in 1942 to join the Army Air Force. He served as a Lt. in the 8th Air Force in the European Theater as a B24 pilot. He returned to Brown and graduated with a degree in Mechanical Engineering. Arthur worked as a mechanical engineer, starting his own firm in Syracuse, NY in 1969. He enjoyed the outdoors, and spent many wonderful times, sailing, fishing, and hunting with his family and friends. He was a kind and generous man who will be greatly missed. A private family remembrance will be held at a later date.