

HUDSON, Edna M., passed away on July 3rd, 2007 in Mesa, AZ., one day after her 90th birthday. Edna grew up in Washington D.C. and then moved to Arizona in 1946. Her husband of 46 years, Dr. Philip G. Hudson, was a professor of economics at the University of Arizona, and she was a primary school teacher in Tucson for more than twenty years. She is survived by her three children: daughter, Phyllis Bering; son, Philip G. Hudson Jr., and daughter, Kathy Bering; six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. Edna was a much beloved mother and grandmother who always took wonderful care of her family and friends. If anyone needed her, she was there. As a teacher, there was no one better! Teaching was her avocation. She will be greatly missed! Burial will take place at Greenwood Memory Lawn Cemetery.
